Harassment may have multiple targets: it may be directed at an individual, or between persons of the same characteristic, or group. It may be student to student; staff to student; staff to staff; student to staff; or by third parties. - 2.4.3. Any reported allegations of harassment, discrimination or retaliation will be investigated promptly in accordance with the grievance procedures set forth below.

3. Grievance Procedure

(Grievance Policy for Employee Complaints of Discrimination is reference in District Policy 1710)

The intent of the investigation process is to provide a prompt and equitable resolution of student complaints alleging any form of discrimination. A typical investigation may take 60 school days; however, timelines may vary depending on the complexity of the investigation and the severity and extent of the discrimination and/or harassment. This includes complaints filed by students against school employees, other students, or third parties.

- 3.1. Filing a Grievance: There are three major stages of the complaint process: (1) the school will conduct a full investigation of the complaint; (2) both parties receive a response regarding the outcome of the complaint; and (3) the parties may file an appeal, if applicable.
- 3.2. Oral and written complaints are accepted; however, to preserve the accuracy of the grievance we encourage the submission of written grievances. The Director of Student Services will facilitate the complaint process by providing transcription assistance to include language translation as necessary. Written complains should include the following:
 - The name, address, telephone number and signature of the complainant
 - The name and address of the school where the incident occurred
 - The name(s) of alleged person(s) responsible for violation
 - A sufficient description of the nature of the alleged discrimination (explain what occurred)
 - The date(s) on which the alleged discrimination took place
 - A statement of requested resolution
- 3.3. Administrative Investigation: Refer to the Conducting an Administrative Investigation Policy, additionally:
 - 3.3.1. Notice Required under this Policy: Upon receipt of a complaint or charge of discrimination administrators must provide appropriate notice to all parties with a copy of this policy; informing the complainant of the right to file a criminal complaint (including unlawful sexual harassment); the right to have someone translate or interpret during the interview; the right to have representation; the right to confidentiality; the right to end the informal process at any time; the right to extend the informal complaint to the designated district official as noted in this policy; the right to appeal; or the right to file an independent formal complaint with the Office of Civil Rights at any time which is not limited to any aspect of the Washington County School District grievance process.
 - 3.3.2. Reporting to Law Enforcement: In cases involving potential criminal conduct, school personnel must immediately notify appropriate law enforcement authorities. When any person has reason to believe that a child has been subjected to abuse or neglect, that person shall immediately notify the nearest peace officer, law enforcement agency, or office of the Division of Child and Family Services. A law enforcement investigation does not relieve the school of its independent obligation to investigate the conduct.
 - 3.3.3. Interim Measures During an Investigation: It may be appropriate for a school to take interim measures during the investigation of a complaint. For instance, if a student alleges that he or she has been sexually assaulted by another student, the school may decide to suspend or place the alleged perpetrator in a separate class or at another school location. If the alleged harasser is a teacher, the teacher may be placed on administrative leave pending an investigation into the allegations. School administration must warn the accused to not contact the alleged victim or potential witnesses during an investigation.

- 3.3.4. Take Effective Steps Toward an Equitable Solution: What constitutes a reasonable response to information about possible discrimination, retaliation, or harassment will differ depending upon the circumstances; considering the identity of the harasser and the context in which the harassment occurred; and also taking into account the age of the students, the school size, the administrative structure and past experiences.
- 3.3.5. Report findings to the Complainant in Writing Outlining the Right to Appeal to the Superintendent or Washington County School District's Board of Education: If a party to a complaint does not agree with its resolution, within 10 days of the receipt of the outcome, that party may appeal in writing to the Washington County School District's Board of Education or Superintendent. The Board of Education and Superintendent will review the complaint, findings, and render a decision regarding the action taken by administration. At its discretion, the Board may convene a panel consisting of two board members and the Superintendent to conduct a hearing as part of the appeal process.
- 3.3.6. Confidentiality: In all cases, schools should make every effort to keep confidential the names of all parties involved, including the complainant, the witnesses, and the accused, except to the extent necessary to carry out an investigation or comply with the law. FERPA permits a school to disclose to the harassed student, information about the sanction imposed upon a student who was found to have engaged in harassment when the sanction directly related to the harassed student. This includes an order that the harasser stay away from the harassed student, or that the harasser is prohibited from attending school for a period of time, or transferred to other classes.
- 3.4. Monitoring Outcomes: Administration must monitor outcomes under the investigation findings to include the impact, if any, on the campus climate. Such consideration is intended to help the school avoid retaliation or continued violations. This is particularly important if findings of an investigation involved harassment to include sexual harassment and violence.
- 3.5. False Complaints: False and malicious complaints of harassment, discrimination or retaliation (as opposed to complaints that, even if erroneous, are made in good faith) by employees or students may be the subject of appropriate disciplinary action.
- 3.6. Expanded Review of a Complaint (Formal): Students, parents/guardians, or patrons alleging discrimination or other related violation of civil rights may also file a formal complaint at any time with the following agencies:
